

Phison Environmental Protection Policy

2020.June.04 established

2021.April.17 revised

Responsible unit: Environmental Safety and Health Risk Management Dep.

Phison (hereinafter referred to as “the company”) abides by environmental-related laws, regulations and international standards, protecting natural environment. The company is devoted to reach the goal of environmental sustainability during operation and internal management. Additionally, the company promotes this policy for information transparency.

Management Approach

1. Green Enterprise

Aiming for the reduction of greenhouse gases, the company complies with environmental laws and international standards through green manufacture, green design, green operation, and green architecture.

2. Environmental Friendly Behavior

With the concept of product life cycle assessment, the company dedicates to reducing negative impact to environment from raw material, procurement, manufacturing, distribution, usage, and final disposal, expanding the product life and reducing waste.

3. Energy Conservation

The company conserves the usage of electricity and water and consumes green energy for the propose of reaching environmental friendly goal.

4. Waste Recycling

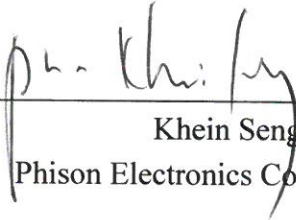

The company adheres to the concern to environmental protection, having obligation of waste recycling, enhancing the recycling rate and using recycled materiality to make resource used sustainably.

5. Environmental Education

To implement environmental education, the company establishes a dedicated unit to set the regulation, promote, and maintain environmental management system. The company holds regular courses to managers and employees and raise awareness of suppliers.

6. Transparent Information

The company has obligation of corporate social responsibility to disclose environmental information through public channel such as CSR report to provide stakeholders as reference. Strengthen and inform all employees, subsidiaries, and joint ventures about their environmental protection awareness and related responsibilities.

Khein Seng Pua
Phison Electronics Corp. Chairperson